Compensation to persons who suffered from anti - Jewish measures in Norway during World War II

1. A payment will be made to persons who were born before the end of 1942, and who in Norway suffered from anti-Jewish measures during World War II. The person concerned will on application be paid a standard sum of NOK 200 000.
2. If the person concerned is no longer alive, the sum will be paid to the heirs according to the provisions concerning distribution laid down in the Inheritance Act, but limited to spouses and direct heirs.
3. The payment to each individual is limited to NOK 200 000. This means that a person who himself fulfils the conditions of item 1 will not receive any amount on behalf of others, e.g. deceased parents, grandparents or spouse. If payment is reduced because of the maximum amount, other heirs will not be entitled to the surplus.

Application on own behalf

The application must include the full name of the applicant (including any previous names), address, telephone number, date of birth, and place of birth. A copy of birth certificate should be enclosed if possible.

Application on behalf of deceased person- as heir

When applying on behalf of deceased persons, the application must include information about the deceased person's name (including any previous names), date of birth and date of death if this is known. It must contain an explanation of the marriage or family relationship with the deceased person, and the information should, as far as possible, be documented, e.g. by copy of birth or marriage certificate. The existence of any other heirs should also be stated, and whether these other heirs are alive.

The applicant must state to which bank or postal giro account the amount is to be paid.

Closing date for applications

The application must be received by the Ministry of Justice by 1 November 1999. The application should preferably be made on a special application form. Such application form may be obtained by contacting the Civil Department of the Ministry of Justice, tel. no +47 22 24 54 51 or by contacting Det Mosaiske Trossamfund, (The Jewish community) in Oslo, tel. no +47 23 33 02 89.
